AN AUTHENTIC VILLAGE... ... FOR A PRESTIGIOUS GETAWAY

An historic village and chic resort, Megève nurtures the art of French living at an altitude of 1,100 metres. Nestled at the heart of the Mont Blanc massif, the village owes its reputation to the Rothschild family. A century ago, Baroness Noémie de Rothschild chose Megève to infuse with a level of prestige that reflected her own personality.

Megève is enhanced by its unspoiled architecture, with its many timeless farms lending its landscapes a rare authenticity. Built from natural materials, Megève's chalets are simply stunning and continue to attract a great many visitors.

FROM WELL-BEING...

In need of some deep relaxation? Le Palais de Megève offers a range of options for some me-time. An area that extends over 675m<sup>2</sup> is dedicated to swimming and water activities. The counter-current river, massage bubble beds and alcoves will do you a world of good in the indoor and outdoor world of relaxation and pleasure that awaits. Not forgetting the saunas and steam rooms. A pleasure to share... or to keep all to yourself!

In the Palais de Megève, the largest sports complex in the Alps, you'll be taken aback by the stripped-back design which combines natural stone and wood. Embark on a journey to the source of well-being where a wide range of facial and body treatments is available. Among them are "children's" and "teen" treatments that are sure to delight the younger members of the family. Manicures and pedicures are also available. Whether as a reward for exertion on the slopes or simply to give your day a lift, the Palais de Megève offers a timeless idyll.

Address: 247 Rte du Palais des Sports

... TO CELEBRATION

If you're looking for an open-air nightclub with a relaxed dress code, welcome to La Folie Douce! A veritable institution that's been welcoming skiers to the dance floor since 1980.

Against a backdrop of shows and cabarets, La Folie Douce unfurls a unique concept that suits families just as much as young adults. Enjoy delicious cuisine combined with the joys of celebration, and delight in shows that you won't see anywhere else.

As Megève bears the "Family Plus" label, it welcomes little ones and transports them into a magical world. Here's a glimpse of what your children will be able to do in Megève:

---

A DOG-SLEDDING RIDE

---

Alone, gazing at the Mont Blanc massif, sled through Megève's snow-covered landscapes and experience an intense sense of freedom! Something to spark the imagination at any age... The village's charm appeals to everyone, and the surrounding backdrop is just as exceptional. As a first experience, or learning how to be a musher, dog-sledding activities are a journey to the heart of winter that your children will never forget.

MAGICAL VILLAGES FOR CHILDREN

This year, the secret Christmas village will be setting up in Megève. Bring your children to discover Father Christmas' grotto and the elves' workshop. They can also take part in a cookery workshop and enjoy playing with wooden toys. The highlight of the show is Father Christmas arriving on his sleigh on the 24th of December.

In the tobogganing area at the top of Rochebrune, the snow elves have found a little corner of paradise from where they can share their magical world with your children. This fun, lively village is a fantastic playground for your family's youngest members. Giant slides, inflatable tyres to ride on the snow, zip line, elves' cabins, picnic areas, treasure hunts, games, challenges, and entertainment await children throughout the winter at the Snow Elves Village.
