REACH NEW HEIGHTS WHEN YOU STAY... ... IN THIS CHARMING VILLAGE

Val d'Isère was born out of a small village tucked away in a valley, and thanks to the passion of a few highly motivated pioneers, it's now one of the world's most renowned resorts. It's undoubtedly up there among the major sports and Alpine skiing destinations. Fittingly, some have even nicknamed it "The Skiing Mecca".

There's no end to Val d'Isère's magic. Perched at an altitude of 1,850 metres, this peaceful haven in the Haute-Tarentaise valley quickly rose to become an international resort. Even so, it's managed to retain its charm, thanks to its wooden and stone chalets.

GETTING HERE, GETTING AROUND AND PARKING

BY AIR

Four international airports are located near Val d'Isère:

- Geneva and Lyon: 3 hours by car
- Chambéry : 2 hours by car
- Grenoble : 2 hours 30 minutes by car

Several shuttlebuses are available to take you from the airport to the resort.

BY TRAIN

Many trains and major high-speed train lines stop at Bourg-Saint-Maurice train station, which, at just 40 minutes by car, is the closest station to Val d'Isère. The Altibus transport group runs transfers from the train station.

GETTING AROUND IN VAL D'ISÈRE

SHUTTLEBUSES

Every season, the resort runs a network of free shuttlebuses. They offer an easy way to get from one end of Val d'Isère to the other.

Three bus lines (red, blue and yellow) serve the entirety of the resort's hamlets: La Daille, the centre, Le Laisinant, Chatelard, Joseray and Le Fornet. Le Legettax hamlet is also accessible by shuttlebus.

On the red line, every stop is marked with a sign. They display the direction the shuttlebus is going, as well as a bus network map. Additionally, when you're waiting at a stop, you'll be kept informed in real time about when the next bus is expected to arrive.
